

The signal magnitudes are shown below. The gain of the integration block is shown to have unity gain at around 10mHz and increase at lower frequencies.

